

Course Descriptions:

Individual - Bronze:

2-3 hours

$200 and up depending on range options

This is one step above the public seminar, and our most basic custom course

Organizations / Insurance / Laws

Along with personal familiarization with YOUR firearm / care and feeding / storage and carry options grip / stance / use / holster / sling – carry options on your person / inside your home / in public types of ammunition and available options

We'll examine your particular circumstances and answer your concerns

This course is to make you more confident and better prepared with your firearm

Client may select ONE additional option from the topics below

If you are still trying to decide which firearm is the best choice for you; I can help you with that, and when you make a decision, I can help you locate and purchase it hassle free, and then help you become familiar with it safely at the local range.

Individual - Silver

4-6 hours

$400 and up depending on range options

EVERYTHING in the BRONZE package PLUS:

Supervised range visit with one significant other including practical firearm instruction and application, along with additional instruction in THEIR firearm (two firearms total) shooting inside the home incorporating the significant other, multiple engagements, including obstacles actions in an emergency, triage for wounded personal options with your own firearms or discuss options that you might be more comfortable with actions after the shooting, including notifying law enforcement or medical.

We'll perform a safety and security walk through of your home in daytime and night-time

Finally, we'll discuss dogs in the security role and address the TWO customer selected options

Individual – Gold

6-10 hours

$600 and up depending on range options

Everything in the Bronze and Silver package PLUS:

additional options, methods and considerations to further ensure your personal safety and comfort address concerns that you may have NOW or even things in the future

Additional or upgraded firearms, optics & accessories that make you more confident in your ability and gear vehicle storage / carry methods and options, additionally we'll go to your workplace and discuss options safety inspection of your home / workplace and vehicle as well as discuss some Medical Alerts or conditions that you or a loved one may have, now or in the future and how to address those concerns.

finally, we'll discuss any remaining safety and security concerns you may have and address the THREE customer selected options

FAMILY PLANS

Family – Bronze

4-6 hours

$400 and up depending on range options

Organizations brief on NRA, The US Concealed Carry Association and the National African-American Gun Association including member benefits and entitlements, options, and costs

Discussion on the benefits / costs of additional insurance. Local concealed carry laws and rules. What to expect, what to do and what not to do.

Includes children at parent's discretion. I reserve the right to discontinue or delay training with children.

Along with familiarization with YOUR firearm(s) / storage and carry options / grip / stance / use holster / sling – carry options on your person / inside your home / in public types of ammunition and available options / examine your particular circumstances / interchangeability of magazines, holsters, pistol caliber carbines, options for young adults as well as two customer selected options from below

This course is to make you, and your loved ones more confident in your personal security and better prepared with your firearms. I will include a frank discussion with your children as you desire, including their role and why this topic is important and matters to them. PARENT MUST BE PRESENT.

If you are still trying to decide which firearm is the best choice for you; I can help you with that, and when you make a decision, I can help you locate and purchase it/them hassle free, and then help you and your family become familiar with it safely at the local range.

Family – Silver

6-8 hours

$600 and up depending on range options

EVERYTHING in the BRONZE package PLUS:

Supervised range visit(s) with family members as designated by the parent, including practical firearm(s) instruction and application, along with additional instruction with THEIR firearm.

shooting inside the home including each family members specific role and function, discuss multiple engagements or targets, including obstacles and barriers or pets. I WILL train minor children in the safe and responsible use of firearms at the parent's option.

actions in an emergency, triage for wounded, engagement with multiple firearms / personal options that you might be more comfortable with actions after the shooting, including notifying law enforcement or medical / address emotional stress and after-action suggestions for the family safety and security walk through of your home in daytime and night-time conditions and discuss additional security options including camera, alarms or monitoring.

These actions will include all designated family members, I will be as inclusive as the parent desires.

Finally, we'll discuss dogs in the security role and address the THREE customer selected options from these:

Family – Gold

8-10 hours

$800 and up depending on range options

EVERYTHING in the SILVER package PLUS:

additional options and methods to further ensure your personal safety, including increased responsibilities for children as they mature self-defense options and firearm selections for young people / pitfalls of marketing to younger clients and help you and them make confident choices now and in the future address concerns that you may have NOW or things you might be considering for the future / additional or upgraded firearms, optics, accessories and devices that make YOU more confident in your own ability.

we'll plan follow on training and activities for the children as they grow and mature we'll go through your vehicles and point out storage / carry methods and options, additionally we'll go to your workplaces and schools as applicable or discuss options you have there conduct a fire safety inspection of your home / workplace and vehicles as well as discuss some Medical Alerts or conditions that you or a loved one may have, now or in the future and how to address those concerns.

Special Circumstances and Client Options (Included in Business Packages)

Individual: Bronze Select ONE

Silver Select TWO

Gold Select THREE

Family: Bronze Select TWO

Silver Select THREE

Gold Select FOUR

Special Circumstances – Pregnant Woman / Child / Disability / Prostatic / Med Device / Oxygen / Deaf / Blind / Other

Special Circumstances Flammables / Ammunition / Historical / Medical

Special Circumstances – Vehicle / Device / Livestock / Dangerous Species / Contents / Drugs

Special Circumstances – All Others

Organization – Bronze

6-8 Hours

$600 / up depending on range needs

organizations – NRA, The US Concealed Carry Association and the National African-American Gun Association including corporate benefits and entitlements, options, and costs.

Discussion on the benefits / costs of additional insurance.

Local concealed carry laws and rules. What to expect, what to do and what not to do.

Along with:

confidence in your workforce to create a viable plan for a worse-case scenario, up to and including armed response and intervention / Active shooter / disgruntled employee / rules governing workplace conceal carry or firearms possession / owner requirements, customer expectations and safety

Firearm familiarization with YOUR firearm(s), business or individually owned. We'll teach how to properly and safely load and unload, along with proper cleaning and servicing. We go over deployment, presentation and use along with recovery of your pistol / rifle / shotgun, holster considerations and recommendations, carry options and methods on your person and inside your workplace or vehicle, including security of the firearm, especially around customers and laws governing their use

We cover storage and safety, types and uses of ammunition and available options. We'll examine and address your particular circumstances, and train interchangeability of magazines, holsters, pistol caliber carbines, options for employees and associates

If you are still trying to decide which firearm is the best choice for your business, I can help you with that, and when you make a decision, I can help you locate and purchase it/them hassle free, and then help you and your employees become familiar with it safely at the local range

Organization – Silver

8-12 Hours

$800 / up depending on range needs

EVERYTHING in the BRONZE package PLUS:

supervised range visit(s) with employees as designated by the owner / manager, including practical firearm(s) instruction and application, along with additional instruction in THEIR firearm shooting inside the business including each employee's specific role and function, discuss multiple engagements or targets, including obstacles and barriers / emergency actions on contact as well as employees not tactically engaged actions during an emergency including triage for wounded, engagement with multiple firearms, reporting and notification of next of kin or press / incorporate and discuss your personal options with your own firearms or discuss other options that you might be more comfortable with actions after the incident / notifying law enforcement or medical / address emotional stress and after-action suggestions / media / press / social media and law enforcement rules and wishes of the owner / management team safety and security walk through in daytime and night-time conditions and discuss additional security options including camera, alarms or monitoring / these actions will include all designated employee or team members

We will host an open brainstorming / forum discussion of all special considerations (see above)

Organization – Gold

10-14 Hours

$1000 / up depending on range needs

carrying concealed and the possibility of an armed response to violence or a threat of violence additional options and methods to further ensure personal safety and security of workers and customers concerns that you may have NOW or even things you've been considering for the future / additional or upgraded firearms, optics, accessories and devices or tactics that make you and your employees more confident in their own ability / follow on training and activities for new employees including during on-boarding or as required in the future brainstorming session with employees at the team to individual level to address their safety concerns.

we'll go through vehicles, parking areas and service areas, routes and delivery options, contracting and home or other business visits / storage / carry methods and options for company assets as well as privately owned items / fire safety inspection of individual work areas and best course of action requirements or plan

We will introduce and interact with first responder personal to find out how to best equip them for your protection and possible rescue / cover and create policy as necessary, and finally, we'll discuss any remaining safety and security concerns your employees may have and address the Special Circumstances (above) in an open, public forum satisfying individual / management and owner's concerns.

